Back in the Day

Enough sweet talk, let's go get some candy!

Hey! None of those girls are cheerleaders!

Hey! A time when both Tasha and Tammie were sweet!

Back when no one know how to dress themselves!

Cute and cuter

Hairy and scary!

Bathing suits and frosting, what a combo!

Jess, Dana and Kelly — Center
School buds.

Why are we here again?

Adam and Jay, where'd he go anyway?

Where is that birthday girl?

Diane, Jenny, Val, Amy and Meg — “poodles” of fun!

So when did Amy stop being BOY-CRAZY?

Beth, Nicole and Jess are good doobies.

Pete and Mark show their stuff!

Boy's night out.

Showgirls

Time for Work?

Cortney and Danyel
kick back after a long study.

Ha, Ha Holly!

No, really, I'm calling my mother!

Just one of the girls, OOPS . . . sorry Matt !

Aim for the heart Paula, the heart, the heart!

Caitlyn and Kinnon go nuts for Green Wave.

Kerri always has time to put Andy in his place!

Andy, Brian and Ryan show off their school spirit along with their study physiques!

An AHS production of the death of a play.

April and Tammie take us back to funkier days at AHS.

A quick word from our sponsors . . .

Classmates and Friends,

The last four years have been an experience of a lifetime. Friends and memories have been made that will follow us forever.

As a class, we were a tight knit group, and I am proud to say we were able to rise up to a challenge. We were in school during a time of sweeping changes and reforms, fortunately though, the more things change the more they stay the same.

Friday night football, powder puffs, and frigid Thanksgiving mornings, these are all things we will remember and cherish.

As our final year draws to a close, I look into the future. With confidence I can say that the class of "98" will go out into the world and do their best.

I have had the pleasure of being your class president, and gotten to know pretty much everybody. There is nothing that can't be accomplished, and there is no reason for excuses. I wish everyone good luck, good health, and much success.

Your Class President and Friend,

Brian Lohnes

At the 6:00 dinner break, some members of the prom committee got together to show off their work. The next five hours involved a lot of hard work, but also singing and dancing to the songs from the Prom tape blaring from the speakers, as a test for the next day's Grand March. The atmosphere in the gym was one mixed of anxiety, relief, excitement, and also sadness. That night was a group effort, and group achievement, and we all left there better people because of it.

Breaking the Ice:

The theme has been picked.

The song's
chosen.

Between the planning, painting and adding the perfect touch, we all learned that the Junior lasts much longer than just one night. Though the night of the Prom stands out most in our memories, the Prom Committee also remembers all the hard work and fun we had on those late nights at the Weymouth Air Base leading up to May 9, 1997.

Hi, Michelle!

THE MASTERPIECE

The colors have been selected.

Now it's time for business.

Kerri, Brian, Dana, and Tammie collapse into the main doorway of the unfinished ice castle after another paint fight at the Base.

Jackie helps Jonathan roll out black paper as one of many afterthoughts.

We've Got Tonight . . .

Melissa, Fiona, Nicole, Kelly, and Allison are as beautiful as the flowers they hold.

Jonathan likes his flowers, too.

These pals smile as the flashes continue on.

What camera do we look at?

Brett and Kaitlyn, the King and Queen of the Junior Prom, stand guard in front of their ice castle.

Liz smiles in spite of her crutches, and . . . ooh, Katie!

This crew, in black and blue (and white), can't wait to get to the Prom.

Best friends Kerri and Tammie show off their handsome hunks, Brian and Chris.

Fortunately, Dana dissolves any attempt at a Kodak Moment for Brett and Meredith.

Ryan and Marcy enjoy the first dance of the night.

All the Happy Couples

The Franey Boys and their women — Brian and Court Member, Beth, and her boyfriend walk down the center aisle at the Grand March.

It doesn't cost extra to stand in front of the limo, right?

Adam and Susan wait to get their pictures done.

Becky and Scott — Class Couple '98. (Aren't they cute?)

The girls ditch their dates and huddle together before the dancing begins.

This isn't a kissing contest, Sheryl.

Ladies in red, Maureen, Timna, and Chanda, tear up the dance floor.

We've Got Tonight, Who Needs Tomorrow?

Jen, Jessie, and Kim bask in the royalty of Kai tlyn, Her Royal Highness.

Matt, Kerri, Melissa, and Andy get into the swing of things.

Breda sneaks in between sisters Caitlin and Michelle as they head out to the dance floor.

Beata, Leanne, Colleen, April, and Meg have found their table. Look out, they're hungry.

Rhiannon and Tricia are all dressed up with someplace to go.

Night Night, Marc.

If you break 'em, you'll buy 'em, Caitlin and Jess.

Hi Stacey, Bye Andy.

April, Allison, Katie, and Ryan prepare for the show choir competition at Shephard Hill.

Stephanie's as thrilled as ever at the prospect of another double period.

Time Flies When You're Having Fun

Tammie and Kerri — Always Ready in Case of Emergency.

Oh, Gill.

Stacey, Kim, Jess, Caitlin, and Susan. Marcia, Marcia, Marcia!

Girls Kaitlyn and Beth just want to have fun.

Don't worry Beth, it really is almost over.

Run, Forrest, er . . . Andy.

YOU KNOW YOU'RE IN TROUBLE WHEN...

10. YOU THINK THE HARDEST THING ABOUT SCHOOL IS THE EXTENDED PERIOD.

9. THE MORNING YOU DECIDE TO STOP FOR BREAKFAST, YOUR MOM HAS THE SAME IDEA.

8. EVERY MORNING YOU'RE FACED WITH THE SAME PROBLEM OF TRYING TO FIGURE OUT WHERE YOU ARE.

7. GETTING YOUR SENIOR PICTURES BECOMES AN ANNUAL EVENT.

6. YOU'RE TYPING THE LAST LINE OF YOUR TERM PAPER AND THE ELECTRICITY GOES OUT.

5. THE NUMBER OF CAR ACCIDENTS YOU'VE HAD IS GREATER THAN THE NUMBER OF MONTHS YOU'VE HAD YOUR LICENSE.

4. EVERYONE SCATTERS AND YOU FORGET TO RUN.

3. YOU'VE WALKED AROUND FOR 20 MINUTES, AND YOU STILL CAN'T FIND AN OPEN BATHROOM.

2. THE FISH SUDDENLY FALL ASLEEP.

1. YOU'RE WALKING ON A YELLOW LINE, AND THE AUTHORITIES ARE NO WHERE TO BE SEEN.

GOOD MORNING, YESTERDAY

My story begins not so long ago,
 And not so far away,
 The memories come freely,
 Going back to my younger days.
 The year was 1980,
 The first time I opened my eyes.
 I looked around this crazy place,
 The sun began to rise.
 And how my parents loved me!
 They'd watch me crawl on the floor.
 Strong hands to help me stand,
 'Til I needed them no more.
 My mom bought me a lunch box,
 I climbed on a big yellow bus.
 I didn't want to go at first,
 But soon I left with no fuss.
 I then outgrew my lunch box,
 I wanted to walk to school.
 I was one of the big kids now,
 And big kids were so cool!
 The next year I had a locker,
 And had to change for gym.
 The wonderful world of Junior High,
 And trying to fit in.

The sun was slowly rising,
 One morning in '94,
 When a lowly freshman at AHS,
 Apprehensively opened the door.
 I may have gotten lost at first,
 But soon I fit right in,
 Even though chewing gum in class,
 Still somehow felt like a sin.
 The homework and the practices,
 That never seemed to end,
 Football games, the Pack the Place,
 Now always with my friends.
 I'm seldom home for dinner,
 With my busy high school life.
 And though I'd like to be there,
 I'm meeting my friends tonight.
 Boys and girls started pairing off,
 We all took drivers' ed.
 And to the places we used to walk,
 We took our cars instead.
 And then there were the accidents,
 And no one was ever to blame.
 After school jobs to pay for gas,
 And those pesky insurance claims.
 We also had to save our cash,
 For that money-pit known as "The Prom",
 Girls in beautiful dresses,
 And boys with tuxes on.

The Grand March was a huge success,
 Worth all the time at the Base.
 The couples strode out, two by two,
 As the flashes lit up their face.
 We walked out to our limousines,
 From the blue ice castle in May.
 "We've Got Tonight", the final dance,
 To a well-remembered day.
 And all of the sudden we're seniors,
 A year of firsts and lasts.
 Last Homecoming, last Thanksgiving game,
 Last being late for class.
 Last practices and meetings,
 Last excuses why,
 The last year we're together,
 And the first time to say good bye.
 The Senior Reception had come and gone,
 The yearbooks went out and were signed,
 This part of life, a turning point,
 Both future and past on our minds.
 Boys in green, and girls in white,
 We listened to their speeches.
 We made it! And we got our diplomas,
 As our families watched from the bleachers.
 The ritual parties afterwards,
 Just being with friends on our minds.
 But sadness showed up on this happy day,
 In knowing this was the last time.

That fall I left for college,
The first time on my own.
I made new friends but kept some old,
Long distance over the phone.
I came home every summer,
And did the summer stuff,
And somewhere during those four years,
I realized I'd grown up.
The next year I got married,
I had a full time job.
I'd see some friends on weekends,
But never the whole huge mob.
And soon I had some kids of my own,
And loved them with my life.
Family was first, and friends fit in,
On the odd, occasional night.
My parents got old and my children grew,
Too quickly time goes by.
The sun is slowly setting,
I sit and softly sigh.
My eyes focus on a photograph,
Of my own younger face,
Nestled in a crowd of friends,
Senior Picture- '98.
Nothing could go wrong then,
Life was eternity.
Unknowing of so many things,
The way that life should be.
And now my kids are living it,
And someday, so will theirs.
Despite life's little ups and downs,
Each moment is precious and rare.
I pick up a book from the table,
It almost whispers to me.
I think of all that I've become,
And who I used to be.
I've been blessed with health and love,
More happiness than sad,
My life has been fulfilling,
My life has not been bad.
And as I lay this book on my lap,
And thoughtfully turn the page,
I remember when, and silently say,
Good Morning, Yesterday.

BY KERRI PHAIR

We are very proud of you.

Jerry Seinfeld announced that his show, television's most popular comedy, will end on May 14, 1998. Fans across the country and co-stars Michael Richards, Jason Alexander, and Julia Louis-Dreyfuss prepared for life without Seinfeld. 4. Julia Roberts had a big year in 1997 with Conspiracy Theory and My Best Friend's Wedding. 5. The Lost World, the sequel to Jurassic Park, was a summer blockbuster grossing an estimated $229 million. 6. ABC won viewers' hearts with Dharma & Greg, a sitcom about an uptight yuppie and a happy-go-lucky yoga instructor. 7. Kirstie Alley returned to prime time as a lingerie executive in one of the most successful new sitcoms of the season, Veronica's Closet. 8. The true-to-life drama Party of Five, starring Neve Campbell, Matthew Fox, Scott Wolf, Lacey Chabert, and Jennifer Love Hewitt, attracted millions of new devotees and increased its ratings by 29%. 9. Michael J. Fox also returned to prime time in Spin City. He won a Golden Globe for his role as the Deputy Mayor of New York City. 10. "They work in secret and dress in black." Men in Black, starring Will Smith and Tommy Lee Jones, was one of the most successful films of the summer. The movie's combination of awesome special effects and humor drew people to the box office. 11. Canadian director James Cameron "sunk" $200 million dollars into the film Titanic. The film won Golden Globes for Best Director and Best Picture and captured 14 Academy Award nominations. In addition to earning awards and nominations, it became the top money making film in history. 12. Childhood friends Ben Affleck and Matt Damon cowrote the screenplay for Good Will Hunting. Their efforts were recognized with a Golden Globe for Best Screenplay and nine Academy Award nominations. 13. Since the animated show King of the Hill debuted in January of 1997, it has consistently been one of television's top 30 shows. Fox's other animated hit, The Simpsons became the longest running animated show in television history, surpassing the record previously held by The Flintstones. • Air Force One, with Harrison Ford, was a summer hit earning $171 million. Ford also won a People's Choice Award. • Ellen Degeneres' character in her sitcom Ellen became the first openly gay series lead in television. • Screenwriter Kevin Williamson brought horror back to the movies with Scream, its sequel Scream 2 and I Know What You Did Last Summer. • Disney's stage version of The Lion King was one of Broadway's biggest hits. • Talk-show host Ricki Lake gave birth to her first child, a son. • Helen Hunt and Jack Nicholson starred in the romantic comedy As Good As It Gets, which earned each of them a Golden Globe. The film was also nominated for best picture at the Academy Awards. • Talk show host Oprah Winfrey was sued by Texas cattle ranchers, who said that her comments questioning beef safety cost them millions. The jury found Winfrey not liable. • Kim Basinger starred in the '50s Los Angeles crime thriller, L.A. Confidential. The movie was nominated for nine Academy Awards. • Other popular television shows were ER, The X-Files, Touched by an Angel, Dawson's Creek, The Drew Carey Show, Frasier, Xena, Brooklyn

South, Just Shoot Me, Chicago Hope, Sabrina the Teenage Witch, and Buffy the Vampire Slayer.

• Brandon Tartikoff died at 48 of Hodgkin's Disease. He was the NBC executive responsible for shows like Hill Street Blues, Cheers, The Cosby Show, L.A. Law, and Seinfeld.

• Throughout his acting career, Jimmy Stewart starred in 79 films including The Philadelphia Story, Hitchcock's Vertigo, and Rear Window. However, his most memorable performance was in the Christmas classic, It's a Wonderful Life. Stewart died at 89. • We also paid final respects to actor Chris Farley, explorer and filmmaker Jacques Cousteau, news commentator Charles Kuralt, actor Robert Mitchum, comedian Red Skelton, and actor Lloyd Bridges.

1. At the tender age of 16, blues guitarist and singer Jonny Lang took his debut song, Lie to Me, to number two on the blues chart. 2. Producer, remixer, and rap artist Sean "Puffy" Combs' album No Way Out sold 561,000 copies in the first week after its release. Six consecutive songs that were either produced or sung by Combs remained at the top of Billboard's rap singles chart for 42 weeks. 3. At the 40th Grammy awards, Shawn Colvin walked away with Record of the Year and Song of the Year for Sunny Came Home. 4. Erykah Badu won a Grammy for Female Rhythm and Blues Vocal performance with her song On and On. Her album Baduizm won a Grammy for Rhythm and Blues Album. 5. The Florida-based group Matchbox 20's debut album, Yourself or Someone Like You, sold more than four million copies.

6. Jamiroquai, known for its unique sound and lead singer Jay Kay's Suess-inspired hats, won a Grammy for its song Virtual Insanity. 7. Fiona Apple's debut album Tidal brought the 20-year old artist great success and a Grammy. 8. Garth Brooks gave a free concert in New York City's Central Park and drew hundreds of thousands of fans. His album Sevens sold 3.4 million copies between Thanksgiving and New Years. 9. Fleetwood Mac released its first new album, The Dance, in a decade. The album debuted at the top of the charts and the band grossed more than $36 million on tour. The group was also inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame along with the Eagles, the Mamas and the Papas, Santana, Lloyd Price, Gene Vincent, Allen Toussaint, and Jelly Roll Morton. 10. From America's heartland came Hanson, three brothers from Tulsa, Oklahoma. With Isaac, 16, on guitar, Taylor, 13, on keyboards and Zachary, 11, on drums, the group received an enthusiastic reception from teens. Their first album, Middle of Nowhere, hit the top 10, and the single MMMBop went to number one in the U.S. and Europe. 11. LeAnn Rimes' Blue was the best-selling debut album ever by a female country artist. While the double-platinum You Light Up My Life topped the pop and country charts, the 15-year old was busy writing an autobiographical novel, starring in a TV movie, and doing ads for Samsung and KFC. 12. The British quintet, The Spice Girls, took the world by storm with their hit single Wannabe!, their book Girl Power, and the movie Spiceworld. 13. Jakob Dylan and the Wallflowers had huge hits with the album Bringing Down the Horse and the single One Headlight. • Jakob's father, Bob Dylan, survived a serious heart ailment to release Time Out of Mind. The album was widely praised by critics and received a Grammy for Album of the Year. • Elton John sang goodbye to Princess Diana at her funeral with his tribute Candle in the Wind 1997. The recording became the fastest selling single in history. The singer said that he would never perform the song again, unless it was at the request of Diana's sons. • Michael Jackson's son, Prince Michael Jackson, Jr. was born and has already earned $2 million for appearing on the cover of a British tabloid.

• Canadian music legend Joni Mitchell was reunited with the daughter she gave up for adoption in 1965. After a lengthy search, private investigators helped the pair find one another. • Canadian Sarah McLachlan had a hit single, Building a Mystery, but her biggest accomplishment was putting together the Lilith Fair Tour. Lilith Fair was an all female rock tour that included artists Sheryl Crow, the Cardigans, Fiona Apple, Jewel, Tracy Chapman, Shawn Colvin, Mary Chapin Carpenter, Indigo Girls, Suzanne Vega, Paula Cole, Lisa Loeb, and Joan Osborne. The tour was so popular it upstaged even the hippest of tours like Lollapalooza and H.O.R.D.E. • Bill Berry, drummer for REM, retired after 17 years with the band. Berry suffered a brain aneurysm while on tour in 1995.

• Rap artist and actor Will Smith took home his third Grammy for Men in Black. • While on tour in Sydney, Australia, U2 loaned its cargo plane to the people of Auckland, New Zealand. The city had been without power for almost two weeks and needed generators. The use of U2's plane allowed needed generators to be flown in to restore power to millions of people. • The Verve's album Urban Hymns jumped 34 spots on the charts after the song Bitter Sweet Symphony was used in a 60-second Nike ad. The band donated its profits to the British Red Cross Land Mine Appeal and the N.C.H. Action for Children "House our Youth 2000" campaign. • While the movie Titanic dominated the box office, its soundtrack dominated the music charts as well.

• Celine Dion performed on the Titanic soundtrack and had a hit of her own with Let's Talk About Love. • Madonna's album Ray of Light was "immersed in spirituality and self-discovery." • Other popular musicians included Paula Cole, Duncan Sheik, Verve Pipe, Shania Twain, Beck, Oasis, Sugar Ray, Trisha Yearwood, Mighty Mighty Bosstones, OMC, Tim McGraw, Faith Hill, Chumbawamba, Everclear, Ben Folds Five, Sublime, Lila McCann, Ty Herndon, Bryan White, Jars of Clay, George Strait, Save Ferris, Abra Moore, and Radiohead. • The music industry lost INXS singer Michael Hutchence, rap artist Notorious B.I.G. (Christopher Wallace), singer, songwriter, and environmentalist John Denver, and Beach Boy Carl Wilson.

1. After a long standoff with Amaru guerrillas, Peru's President Alberto Fujimori gave the order to Peruvian forces to storm the embassy residence where 72 hostages were being held. All of the guerrillas were killed and 71 of the hostages were rescued. 2. Louise Woodward, a 19-year old British au pair, was convicted of murdering an eight month old baby in her care. However, citing an absence of malice, the judge reduced the second-degree murder conviction to manslaughter and her sentence to time served. 3. Former president George Bush took up skydiving at the age of 72. He had jumped from a disabled plane in World War II and had vowed that one day he would do it again for fun. 4. Etienne Bacrot, 14, started playing chess when he was four. He became the world's youngest chess grandmaster ever, beating Canadian grandmaster Kevin Spraggett, 42. 5. Mother Teresa died at the age of 87, leaving behind a legacy of love and compassion for the poor. She also left behind more than 4,000 nuns pledged to continue the order she founded. 6. In April, heavy spring snows raised the Red River in Grand Forks, North Dakota flooding the town, causing 50,000 residents to evacuate and destroying homes and cars in its path. 7. Special Prosecutor Kenneth Starr began investigating the Clintons for their involvement in the Whitewater land development company in Arkansas. Later, Starr became the key prosecutor in President Clinton's alleged relationship with a former White House intern. Starr was investigating whether the President had coerced Monica Lewinsky into lying about the nature of their relationship. Even as accusations rocked the White House, the president's approval ratings were his highest ever. 8. The Heaven's Gate Cult committed suicide with the belief that their souls would be picked up by a spaceship hidden in the tail of the Hale-Bopp comet. Cult leader Marshall Applewhite was among the 39 dead. 9. The men's religious group, Promise Keepers, brought hundreds of thousands of men together in Washington D.C. to pledge their devotion to Jesus, family and one another. 10. At Ohio State University, Secretary of State Madeleine Albright tried to make a case for U.S. military action against Iraq. During the meeting, Albright was continually interrupted by protests from the audience. 11. When the Teamster's union went on strike at United Parcel Service, the nation's leading package-delivery company, millions of

1. Italian fashion designer Gianni Versace was gunned down in front of his Miami home by alleged serial killer Andrew Cunanan. Cunanan later took his own life as police closed in after an extensive manhunt. 2. Time magazine selected Andrew Grove, chairman and CEO of Intel, as its 1997 Man of the Year. He was the person most responsible for the astounding "growth in the power and innovative potential of microchips." 3. In an effort to save Apple, cofounder Steve Jobs struck a deal with its number one competitor, Microsoft. The agreement gave Jobs some time to rescue the company, while the Microsoft Chairman, Bill Gates, became part owner of Apple after buying $150 million in stock. 4. Tamagotchi gave kids a taste of responsibility. Much like the real thing, these virtual reality pets needed everything from attention, to food, to sleep. Without this care, the pets would misbehave, get fat, or even expire. 5. Hot Wheels released its "miniature" version of the Sojourner Mars Rover, complete with Pathfinder spacecraft and lander. Kids and toy collectors sent sales soaring. 6. With increased reading awareness on television due in large part to Oprah Winfrey's book club, and the rise of espresso-serving bookstores, Americans experienced a kind of reading renaissance. 7. People magazine released its first issue of Teen People, with Party of Five's Jennifer Love Hewitt on the cover. The first issue included articles about what's hot in fashion, a behind the scenes look at the music group Hanson, and photo flashbacks of Brad Pitt. 8. Beanie babies sent children and parents running to the toy store. These cuddly little creatures were must-haves for kids of all ages. Retired beanies, like Peanut the Elephant, increased enormously in value. 9. The Hale-Bopp Comet returned to view 4,200 years after its last visit. In many areas, the comet was visible with the naked eye. The comet's next appearance should be in the year 4397. 10. In a re-match in May, IBM's chess playing machine, Deep Blue, defeated world champion Russian Garry Kasparov. 11. Retro 70s trends
